WHAT IS VRIOLOGY

BAIXARDOC

Vrilology is the practice of harnessing the Life Force that we share with the seas, which we call, Vril, through the practice of Seither and Galdor sciences. Vrilology is the lost science that was given to our most ancient ancestors by the Gods, so that they could master the world they lived within, and transform themselves into a race of God-men, about 9,000 years ago. This civilization was located on the shores of the ancient Black Sea. It grew into the lost civilization of original Aryans, who were the ancestors of the Indo-Europeans. The Aryans misused this science and caused an ecological imbalance in the world climate. They lost most of the knowledge of Vrilology after their civilization was destroyed in a the great flood, resulting from the melting of the ice caps, and raising the water levels of the oceans. This caused the land bridge between Europe and Asia Minor, to collapse and in turn, caused the Black Sea to rise 300 feet and swept away that lost civilization, which is remembered in our myths as both the Great Biblical Floor and the lost civilization of Atlantis.

WHAT DOES THE WORD VRIOLOGY MEAN?

It means, "the science of the Vril." It is a collection of knowledge on how to harness the power of the Vril and use it to transform ourselves, our lives and the world around us.

WHAT IS VRIL?

Vril is the life Force that fills the universe. Science has been aware for some time now that matter and energy make up only about 5 percent of the universe. The other 95 percentage of the universe is filled with some form of energy that science refers to by many different names, including Dark Matter or Dark Energy. This mysterious substance is an infinite power source that we call Vril. It is known by many other names including chi, eurlic energy, karma, fahot, feng shui, Rhea Kybele, ur, the Black Sun and many other names. The truth is that this force is a universal force that can be harnessed on a personal level through meditation, visualization and chanting, as well as harnessing it mechanically in what is known as free energy. It is this force that we share with the Gods, and the Gods use to hold the universe together in their struggle with the chaotic forces represented by the Giants.

IS VRIL A SOURCE OF FREE ENERGY?

Vril is what has been referred to as free energy. During the 20th century, many have tried to discover how to harness this power for the benefit of mankind. Victor Schauberger, the Austria engineer learned to harness Vril and create anti-gravity, free energy machines. Nicola Testla also worked on the means to harness Vril free energy. It is a source of power behind anti-gravity propulsion, and can be used to provide an endless source of free energy for all our needs.

WHAT DOES VRIL DO? SA... ABOUT... POLITICS?

BAIXAR DOC

The Church of Vrilology is a non-political organization, divorced of all political aspirations or interests. The Church of Vrilology does not advocate any political ideology. It does not consider itself to belong to any political movement. There are many individuals and groups declaring themselves Odinists, but are actually covers for political movements of both the right and the left. The Church of Vrilology does not care what an individual's political affiliations or beliefs are, just so long as they do not mix politics and religion. The Church does not care if an individual belongs to the left or right, or in between. Any individual is welcomed to practice Vrilology, and are welcomed at our study groups, just so long as they check their politics at the door.

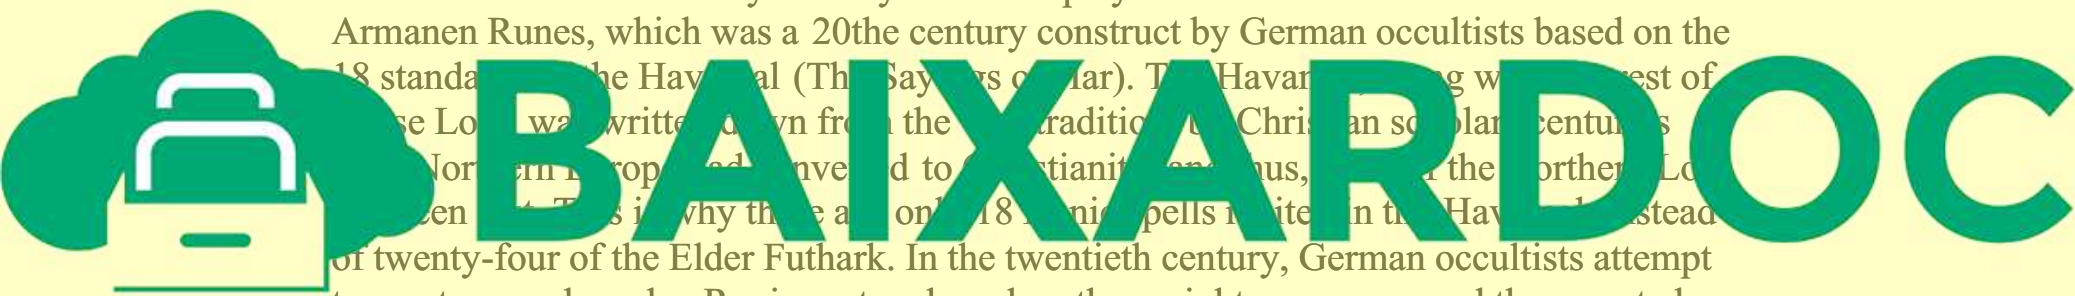

It is the object of Church of Vrilology to completely disavow all political affiliations and believes that the present world order is doomed. It does not seek to acquire political power, nor does it challenge the present political establishment for political power. Vrilology hopes to empower as many people as possible within Western Civilization so that they can, not only survive the coming collapse, but thrive and prosper even during the worse of times. The Church of Vrilology is interested in assisting individuals of European ancestry to discover their true spiritual roots, but is also willing to assist individuals of other traditions to learn about Vrilology if it will help them to connect with their own ancestral roots.

If the Church of Vrilology has any political leanings, it is simply its support for the freedom for all individuals to worship as they wish, without interference by government powers, so long as the religion does not advocate harm or hatred toward others.

IS VRILOLOGY A COVER OF NAZISM?

No! The Church of Vrilology considers National Socialism to be a political movement that pitted half the European Folk against the other half of the European Folk, seeking to either enslave or exterminate them. Though one can make the argument that there was much good in the beginning of National Socialism, in so far as it provided social welfare for the German people, and restored economic vitality and social order, it was spiritually corrupted by Dark Forces and eventually sought to conquer and enslave the peoples of Eastern Europe. Vrilology seeks to enslave no one, either of the European Folk or members of other Folks, races, nationalities or religions. National Socialism was tainted by German nationalism, "Nordicism" and "Germanicism." This led them to despise and look down on other Europeans, especially their Slavic, Latin and Greek brothers and sisters, as well as non-Europeans such as Jews, Gypsies, Africans and Asians.

National Socialism did incorporate some elements of Germanic paganism into its ideology, and used Runes extensively in its symbolic displays. But National Socialism used the Armanen Runes, which was a 20th century construct by German occultists based on the 18 stanzas of the Hávamal (The Sayings of the Seer). The Hávamal was the first of the 18 stanzas of the Elder Futhark, which was written down from the traditional Germanic runic script in the 10th century. The Armanen Runes were invented to create a modern-day Runic system based on these eighteen verses, and thus created a corrupt spiritual system, that eventually led National Socialism down a dark path and contributed to its own destruction.

DOES THE CHURCH OF VRILOLOGY USE THE SWASTIKA?

The Swastika is an ancient and holy runic symbol that has been used, not only by ancient Europeans, but just about every race from the American Indians to the Chinese and Japanese. The Swastika represents the Sun, Good Luck, and the Hammer of Thor with the Asatru movement. The Church of Vrilology recognizes the significance of the magical power that the Swastika possesses and some members will use it within their rituals.

BUT! The Church of Vrilology recognizes how the swastika has been misused by the National Socialists (Nazis) during the 20th century and the pain and suffering the Nazis inflicted on millions of people under their banner which utilized this sacred symbol.

Because of the hurt and suffering that millions of people endured, and still suffer, resulting from the mass murder of some 12 million people, including six million Jews and six million Europeans, mostly Slavs (Poles, Russians, Ukrainians, Czechs, etc...), as well as the enslavement and brutalization of millions more, the Church of Vriloogy refrains from using or displaying the Swastika out of respect for the suffering of so many.

Vriloogy does not hate any one, nor does it consider any races, peoples, ethnic groups or religions inferior or any less human than people of European ancestry. Vriloogy hopes to help all peoples discover their own unique and wonderful heritage and thus, refrains from using symbols that are tainted with such negativity as the Swastika. We hope that someday this ancient runic symbol might be rehabilitated, and restored to its rightful symbolism as one of good luck and fortune, and no longer one of hate, but this will not be the case for the foreseeable future.

IS VRILOLOGY ASATRU?

Asatru is a modern created to refer to those who have sought to return to the old religion that was worshiped in Northern Europe before the arrival of Christianity. It means "those who worship the Aesir. In so far as this is the description of individuals who venerate the Norse Gods we would be classified as Asatru. For we do not venerate the Aesir the Vair as well. Vriloogy is also not a hard looking religion that seeks to create new. For the purposes of like-minded people practicing Vriloogy as a way of life.

The Elder Futhark is the oldest, purest form of runic system passed down to us from our ancestors. It has its roots in the most ancient traditions that can be traced back through prehistory to the lost Aryan civilization that once existed on the shores of the Black Sea, which is the origin of the Atlantis legend. Other runic systems exist and we do research them, but they fall far short of the effectiveness of the Elder Futhark in harnessing Vril and using it to manifest changes in our lives and the world we live in.

The Anglo-Saxon Futhark actually includes the Elder Futhark, but additional Runes were added to accommodate phonetic changes that were taking place within the Anglo-Saxon language as it evolved into English. These additional Runes really have no Vrilic energies associated with them since they are artificial constructs.

The Young Futhark has only sixteen Runes. This Futhark was used centuries after Northern Europe converted to Christianity. Northern Lore was basically an oral tradition and never written down during pagan times. It was only later written down by Christian scholars in an attempt to preserve something of their native culture. But by then, much of the oral lore was lost. Even today, we recognize that what we work with is only a small portion of the myths and lore that was once studied by the pagan scholars of Northern Europe. Thus, people who still used Runes during Christian times, had forgotten the other eight, missing Runes, and thus the Younger Futhark was created.

The lost of ancient lore can be seen in the eighteen runic spells written down in the Havamal. Memory of the other six, missing Runes was lost and thus not included. This eventually gave rise to the eighteen Runes used by Die Armanenschaft der Ario-Germanen (The Armanism of the Aryo-Germanic People. These Runes are known today as the Armanen Futhark and it was created by the German mystic, Guido Karl Anton List, better known as Guido von List, in Vienna, in 1908. This Futhark is a modern, artificial construct, based on the eighteen runic verses and was latter used by the National Socialists in Germany. This corrupted spiritualism empowered the rise of the extreme racism within National Socialism known as "Nordicism" (the belief of a Nordic, blond race separate from and superior to the rest of the White race, as well as all mankind). This spiritualism eventually lead to National Socialist policies of mistreatment, enslavement and even extermination of many eastern European peoples. Combined with German nationalism of the times, it led to the belief that Slavs are an inferior race, and everyone who did not possess blond hair and blue eyes were racially corrupt or inferior.

The Church of Vriloogy studies and researches the various runic systems, but we prefer to restrict our teachings and practices to the Elder Futhark

WHO ARE THE ANCIENT ARYANS?

Aryans are the original people from whom all modern people descended. This civilization occurred on the shores of the ancient Black Sea. It grew into a advanced civilization by using the technology of Vrilo, given to them by the Gods. The Aryans misused this science and caused an ecological imbalance in the world climate. This caused the land bridge, which are the present-day straits between Europe and Asia Minor, to collapse, resulting in the Black Sea water levels to rise 300 feet and swept away that lost civilization. This lost civilization is remembered today in our myths as both the Great Biblical flood and the lost civilization of Atlantis. Those who survived became refugees, scattered across the Eur-Asian continent. These refugees lost most of their knowledge of Vriloogy after their civilization was destroyed by this terrible flood.

After their civilization was destroyed, those who survived became refugees who migrated east, into China, southeast, into Iran, Central Asia and India, south, into the Middle East and even into Egypt, and west, into Europe and the Mediterranean. They brought with them bits and pieces of their near-forgotten technology. These refugees appeared as God-like to those they settled among. In many places they were worshiped and are remembered as Gods who descended to earth, giving them superior science and religion. This is true in the legends of the Sumerians, the Egyptians, the Mayans, the ancient Hebrews, in India, China, and in many other lands.

WHAT IS MEANT BY "BALDER RISING?"

Vrilology is used by the Church of Vrilology to re-forged the lost links our ancestors once shared with the Gods who created them. Through vrilology, we are able to re-establish the bond between ourselves and the Gods. This process is done through the combined use of Galdor and Seither sciences. By properly applying the methodology of Vrilology, we are able to develop the powers of our minds and open what is known as the "Third Eye." This gland is known in Vrilology as the Bifrost Gland. Once opened, it acts as a rainbow bridge between us (Midgard) and the Gods (Asgard). Once this condition has been established, we can properly align ourselves with the Gods and thus, draw on their powers to transform ourselves into Vril Being, and cause transformations in the world around us.

Once this state of being has been achieved, the Gods, who dwell within us, have been awakened. This allows us to align ourselves with them, drawing on their powers. This is what is meant by Balder Rising. It is the awakening of the Gods within us.

Odin provided for this possibility. He provided the means by which we can awaken the Gods within us. This was done by through the death of his most beloved son, Balder, who survived Ragnarok, by dwell in Hel. The practice of Vrilology is in effect, calling Balder back from the Netherworld. His resurrection within us, manifests itself in the creation of a state of being known as the Golden Age of Gimli. Thus, Gimli is a state of being, and not some prediction of a new Golden Age on Earth at "the end of times."

BALDER JET APART IN CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY
BAIXARDOC
Jesus Christ in Christian theology, a messiah who will return to judge and either reward or punish everyone according to Christian interpretation of "God's law."

His appearance will be a material manifestation in which he will set himself up as King and Judge, and thus herald in "God's Kingdom on Earth." This will result in the resurrection of the dead, rejoining of all souls with their fallen bodies. They will either be condemned to eternal damnation in Hell, or eternal bliss, dwelling in the presence of God. This has absolutely nothing to do with Vrilology or Balder.

When refer to the term, "Balder Rising," we are talking about the practice of Vrilology, in which the practitioner has achieved a state in which he or she has re-establish their Bifrost Gland (Third Eye), bridging the gulf between Midgard (themselves) and Asgard (the Gods). This achievement permits them to align themselves with the Gods, in their quest to turn chaos into order throughout the universe. This achievement is what we mean by awakening the Gods, who dwell within us. Balder is the personification of this process. It is the act of calling him back from the static or inertia state of being that we all inhabit. This state is the state of Hel, in which we are only existing, and not truly "living." Like existence in Hel, we are automatons, existing in a state of blind ignorance, unaware of our true potential as the Children of the Gods. Only with the rise of Balder from the Netherworld, will those who call on him (the inhabitants of Odainsaker) will be reborn. This rebirth is the result of the Gods awakening within you, filling you with their Life Force (Vril), and providing you with the means (Vrilology) to transform yourself through spiritual evolution, and the world around you. Once you have achieved this state of being, you have manifested the Golden Age of Gimli within you!

Thus, Balder is not a messiah who will manifest himself in human form and walk among you, providing you with salvation. He is the means by which Odin provided for us to awaken the Gods with us, and manifest the Golden Age of Gimli with us.

WILL BALDER RISE FROM THE DEAD AND WALK AMONG US AND JUDGE US?

NO! Balder Rising is a state of being we can achieve through the practice of Vrilology. It is a state of being that is the personification of the Golden Age Gimli. This golden age is not manifested on earth, but within us. Thus Balder, will rise within us. It is the act of evolving into a Vril Being.

WHAT IS A VRIL BEING?

A Vril Being is a state of existence that is achieved once an individual has reached a certain level of mastery of Vrilology. It can be summed up by stating simply, that the individual has become proficient in the science of harnessing Vril and using it to transform himself (or herself) and his or her environment, as well as bring control over her/his destiny.

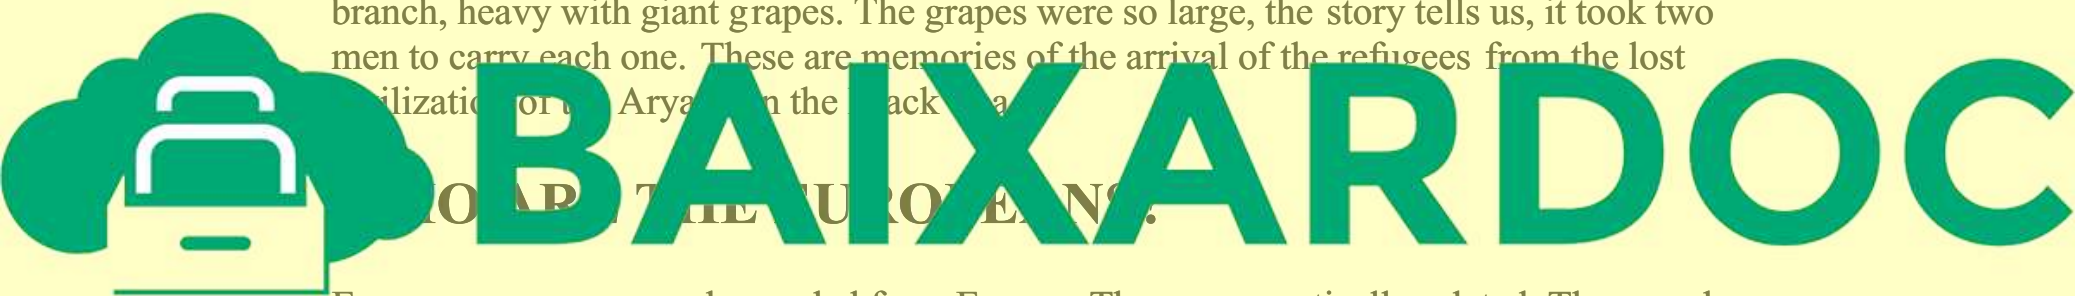

HOW IS VRIL LOGY RELATED TO INDO EUROPEAN PAGAN RELIGIONS?

Vrilology is basically a European Folk religion. It is rooted primarily in the Northern Tradition of the Norse Gods and Norse cosmology. But we recognize that the Norse religion of old has its roots in the original Aryan religion practiced by the Aryans who built their advance civilization on the shores of the ancient Black Sea. All Indo-Europeans are descended from them, after their civilization was destroyed and those who survived became refugees. These refugees dispersed throughout Eur-Asia, and even to a lesser degree, into the Middle East and North Africa. As they moved farther away from each other, their memory of their original religious beliefs lessened and soon was transformed by the new environments they came to settle in. Something of the original Aryan religion survived in every variation of Indo-European religion (Germanic, Celtic, Slavic, Iranian, Roman, Greek, Hittite, Vedic, etc...), but the Norse or Scandinavian variation preserved elements of the original system, with its science of Vril technology and cosmology, in its purest form. It is through the study and practice of this lore, passed down to use by way of the Norse, that we seek to resurrect the Vrilology practiced by our lost ancestors. But we also recognize that we can better understand this lore by comparing what we have received from the Norse through comparative analysis with other variations of Indo-European lore.

HOW IS VRILOLOGY RELATED TO NON-INDO-EUROPEAN RELIGIONS?

To an even lesser degree, some of the original science of vril has been passed on, and incorporated into non-Indo-European lore. Small groups of refugees from the lost civilization of the Black Sea Aryan Atlantis dispersed and settled in the Middle East and even in Egypt. They were received as Gods, and they taught something of their knowledge of vrilology to the people they settled among. Even some Vril science was left over in such diverse civilizations throughout the world, in the Americas, for instance, from the time before the great flooding of the Black Sea, when the ancient Aryans travel across the world and brought their science to the indigenous primitive people on all continents. Memories of their visitations are found in the stone carvings in Africa, Australia and North and South America.

We have descriptions in the Old Testament for instance, about Joshua and a companion entered the valley of Eschol (the valley of grape clusters). In the valley they discover a race of God-men—giants who were descendants of the Gods. They were known as the Anak or A-nun (the fish/serpent). The Sumerians referred to the race of giants as the A-nun-naki. Joshua steals into the valley and leaves the vineyard of the giants with a stolen branch, heavy with giant grapes. The grapes were so large, the story tells us, it took two men to carry each one. These are memories of the arrival of the refugees from the lost civilization of the Aryans in the Black Sea.

WHO ARE THE EUROPEANS?

Europeans are persons descended from Europe. They are genetically related. They can be described as Caucasian, descended from Europe, and belonging to Western Culture, and thus, possessing a collective Western Soul. This description is appropriate and can be referred as the White Race. People who are from the Middle east and India might be Caucasian, but not genetically descended from Europe and belonging to Western Culture and belonging to the collective Western Soul.

WHO ARE THE INDO-EUROPEANS?

The Indo-Europeans were originally the refugees from the destroyed Aryan civilization that was located on the shores of the Black Sea. They began to spread out from their destroyed homeland after 5600 B.C. or B.C.E., and migrated across the Eur-Asian continent. They carried within their DNA, the genetic mutations that had transformed them into a race of God-men. The largest numbers of Indo-Europeans invaded Europe and either conquered or settled among racially similar people. In most cases they were a minority, though their language and culture were adopted by those they conquered or settled among. Other Indo-Europeans settled in Northwestern China, India, Iran in large numbers. In these regions, their language and culture was adopted by those they came into contact with. Much smaller groups settled in the Middle East and North Africa.

There, they assimilated and adopted the languages and cultures of the people, they came into contact. Today, there is a wide range of nations who speak Indo-European languages throughout the world, though most of those people who speak Indo-European languages are not genetically related to the original Indo-European refugees.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY THE ATLANTEAN ARYANS?

Around 10,000 B.C or B.C.E, the Gods descended to Midgard (Earth) and walked and lived among a group of Caucasian people living on the shores of the ancient Black Sea. They taught them the secrets of Vrilology. These people were genetically identical to other Caucasians living from as far west as the Atlantic coast of Europe to Central Asia. But in time, with the knowledge of Vrilology, they were able to use Vril energy to transform themselves into a race of supermen. They eventually possessed superior intelligence, superior physical powers and superior psychic abilities. The civilization they created for themselves using Vril energy was not only superior to anything that existed at the time, but was superior to anything that exists today. It is the basis for the many legends of a lost golden age that is still part of mythologies throughout the known world, and is especially the source of the tale of the lost civilization of Atlantis.

We use the term Aryan, to describe this ancient Caucasian nation, because it is a term that has been used for over a hundred years by European occult and mystical circles. The term was also used by the National Socialists in the middle of the twentieth century, but it has become politically incorrect, but we never use it. Vrilology is politically correct. Thus, Vrilology uses the term to describe a lost nation of Caucasians who had first mastered the power of Vril and used it to transform themselves and the world around them.

HOW DOES VRILOLOGY DIFFER FROM CHRISTIANITY, JUDAISM AND ISLAM?

Vrilology is a form of paganism, which means it is pantheistic. Christianity, Judaism and Islam are monotheistic. They hold that there is one all-powerful deity who created everything and has given us His Law, which we must follow to the letter, or be condemned for all eternity. All three of these religions are based on faith. Vrilology is based on knowledge. It encourages one to seek truth. Life is a never-ending quest to learn and discover, while the three monotheistic religions are centered around a tyrannical God, who forbids one from seeking knowledge. Remember the Biblical story of Adam and Eve? God warns them not to eat of the Tree of Knowledge. According to the three monotheistic religions, knowledge—bad. According to Vrilology, knowledge—good.

DOES VRILOLOGY HAVE A HOLY BOOK, LIKE THE BIBLE?

No. Vriloogy considers the truth to be like a puzzle with an infinite number of peoples. No one individual will ever be able to discover the entire truth. Each of us has the potential to discover some or part of the truth. Some individuals might be able to put into place only one piece of the puzzle, while another might be able to put into place a million pieces. But the puzzle will never be completed, because there is always more to discover.

Presently, Blumetti has written several books for the Church of Vriloogy including, The Book of Balder Rising, Vriloogy: The Secret Science of the Ancient Aryans, and Vril: The Secret to a Happy and Successful Life. But these are not sacred books or the "revealed word." They are just a few books, that we hope will be the foundation of a growing Vriloogy Library that future writers and scholars will contribute to. We are also including a bibliography of recommended reading for students who wish to do further research into Vriloogy.

WHAT DOES VRILOOGY TEACH ABOUT THE FUTURE?

The Church of Vriloogy believes that we are living within the Age of Ragnarok. Ragnarok began in the beginning of the twentieth century and will continue for most of the twenty-first century. As a result, we see the decay and death of Western Civilization as part of Ragnarok.

The twentieth century is a time of class civilization. This clash will result not only in the destruction of Western civilization, but also in the destruction of Islamic civilization. Islam will threaten the world with a fanatic jihad bent on world conquest. China is also seeking to extend its power across the global. Europe and North America, the two pillars of Western civilization are being undermined from within. The ruling elite of the West is totally corrupt with the spirit of Loki. The United States will disintegrate and eventually break up somewhere between 2030 and 2060. Europe could be overwhelmed by Islam, but Islam will eventually wain and decline after the "Age of Oil" comes to an end. This will result in the financial collapse of Islam and the material collapse of Islamic civilization, as it returns to the desert. China will undergo a spiritual upheaval. The seeds of this upheaval are seen in the Feng Gong movement.

Regions of the world will collapse due to the increasing population explosion. We already see the material disintegration of Africa on a grand scale. This disintegration will eventually spread to other parts of the Third World. Disease and disorder will spread. As civilization and ordered society disappear into the vortex of chaos, the population of the world will plunge overnight. In the United States, the population will swell to over 600 million by 2050 due to unrestricted immigration, and then, after the infrastructure collapses under the weight of such huge population numbers, the population will rapidly decline to less than just over 100 million by the beginning of the 22nd century. This will also happen throughout the world.
